Europe's Trust Divide | Can most people be trusted?

Trust in strangers isn't evenly spread across Europe. In just 8 of the 42 countries surveyed does a majority of people say that most others can be trusted, and all of them are in Northern or Western Europe. Denmark leads by a wide margin,...

Fundamental Principles

- Start at Zero: Bar charts and column charts must start their axes at zero, or they will distort the data and mislead the viewer.
- Keep it Simple: Remove unnecessary gridlines and colors to help the message stand out.
- Don't be tricky: Avoid "exotic" charts. The most understood chart is the most effective one.
